

ADVENTISTS EAT NO ANIMAL MEAT

NUTS ARE SUBSTITUTED IN ALL THEIR MENUS.

A CEREAL AND FRUIT DIET

Coffee Displaced by a Roasted Grain
Product—Principles to Govern Restaurant Meals.

Miss Anna Roberson, cook from the Madison Sanitarium, and Arthur G. Stine, assistant, have arrived at the Adventists' camp in Palmer's grove on Washington street and by them and their corps of aides busy preparations are now being made, to accommodate the two hundred and more persons who will take their meals at the dining tent. A canvas sixty-four feet in diameter has been pitched and under it are arranged the tables and benches at which the guests will be served. Strictly hygienic principles will regulate the menus, which will be odd to the people of Janesville and vicinity generally, but which are most satisfactory to those of the Adventist faith. The cooks by whom these meals are prepared have pledged themselves to serve only appetizing and palatable, satisfying, breakfast, dinner and supper, which they warrant will stand by a person and produce as much vitalizing energy and even more than a meat diet.

Are Strictly Temperate
The Adventists are a strictly temperate people, believing the true principles of temperance should be practiced in eating as well as in drinking. No animal meats of any kind will ever be served at the restaurant. The Adventists do not believe that meat in itself is sin but hold that a better diet is that composed of nuts, fruits and grains. They contend that the meat-producing animal has today become so diseased that flesh, though originally intended for man's consumption, is now unfit.

On European Plan
Meals at the dining tent will be served upon the European plan. Plain dishes will cost from two to five cents and the average price of a meal will range between fifteen and twenty cents. The substitutes for meat and other Battle Creek Sanitarium foods, which have made the Adventists so famous as health doctors, will be freely used in the preparation of dishes for the restaurant, and persons unfamiliar with these will thus be given a chance to try and become acquainted with them. These same foods will be on sale at the grocery which will be established on the grounds. No coffee or tea will be used, the cereal drinks, after which the famous Postum coffee was made in imitation, being substituted.

Originated Cereal Foods
The Adventists were the originators of various cereal and nut food products. The coffee is known as Caramel cereal; the meal substitutes as Protose and Nuttolene; the flake foods, as Corn Flakes, Granose, Toasted Wheat Flakes and Granuto; and the crackers are of graham and oatmeal flours. The eating of fruits is also advocated and these will be one of the principals in every menu.

NOTES OF CAMP-MEETING

State Secretary and Treasurer Elder R. T. Dowsett went to Milwaukee on business today.

State President Elder William M. Covert of Marshfield returned this morning from a few days' business visit in Chicago.

No admission fees whatever will be charged to any meetings and all are open to the public. Those which will be of general interest are the three preaching services—10:30 in the morning, 2:30 in the afternoon, and 7:30 in the evening.

About thirty, besides those engaged in the work of preparing the camp, are now occupying tents on the grounds. The numbers will swell regularly until the end of the week, many arriving tomorrow and Thursday.

The work of arranging seats in the large auditorium was rapidly progressing yesterday afternoon and today. About twelve hundred persons can be accommodated with seats in the pavilion and those near the forward part and the center will enjoy the comfort of backs. The seats are similar to those used at the Chautauqua, being constructed of lumber, but iron are so placed that backs, like park bench backs, are created.

Anybody desiring to attend all meetings and find it necessary to camp on the grounds to do so may secure a tent location free of charge from the management.

There will be no danger during the meetings from rains. The synagogue is of water-proof canvas and occupies high land and is surrounded by no hills or slopes from which the water can gather. The entire camp is in an excellent position and well laid out as regards protection from rains.

Each day sees many more tents erected and much change in the appearance of the grounds.

DANDRUFF DON'T WASH OUT.

The Germ That Causes It Has to Be Destroyed, to Cure Dandruff.

Many a woman spends an hour twice a week scouring her scalp, thinking that by scrubbing off the scurf she will cure the dandruff. Two hours a week, at the age of 40 years, she has spent 250 days of 12 hours each, or two-thirds of a year of her life, in that vain hope; vain because you can't cure dandruff without killing the dandruff germ, and the only hair preparation on earth that will do that is Newbro's "Herpicide"—also a delightful hair dressing, and thorough antiseptic against all contagion from use of other hair brushes. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE LYMAN TWINS IN THE RUSTLERS

Fair Sized Audience Passingly Pleased at the Myers Opera House
Last Evening.

With no pretensions attempt at the elaborate in the musical comedy, either as regards the general idea of the production or the costuming of the players, the Lyman twins, appearing in "The Rustlers," amused a fairly good-sized audience at the Myers Grand last evening. Though there was little new in the plan of the play the lines were bright and the jokes were not overdone on the stage. The Lyman twins, well able to play their roles, did not succeed as the stars. Their hit was scored at the end of the second act in the duet, "Give My Love to Mother," where a bouffant-paving-night scene was introduced with effect. The applause which they received did not rank with that given George Hillman, the German comedian, Miss Paul Rosa in the part of Ruth Catchem and Charles Sharp, and Miss Ethel Vanbrocklin as Bonnie Hillman reached his height in the two songs, "I Am a Jolly Soldier," where he was assisted by Bonnie and chorus, and "A Little of Everything," Miss Rosa won her plaudits in "May, May, May" and "Lazy Moon." The comical portrait of Bonnie, the miss just a little over seven, furnished by Miss Vanbrocklin, was one of the delightful features of the play.

CLINTON KNIGHTS MET WITH DEFEAT

Overwhelming and Decisive in the Game Played with Janesville at Athletic Park.

By the score of 5 to 2 the Janesville K. of P. baseball team defeated the Pythian nine from Clinton in the game played at Athletic park yesterday afternoon. Hallett, the pitcher for the locals, struck out eighteen men. Neither side had scored up to the fourth inning when Warren Skelly and Hallett succeeded in skidding the bases and crossing the home plate. Skelly made another run in the sixth and Hutchinson and Johnson scored in the seventh. About that time Clinton began to raise voice, a vigorous complaint against the decisions of Umpire John Ward, claiming he was protecting Janesville's interests too zealously. Such a charge was of course preposterous but Mr. Ward good-naturedly retired and turned over the duties of his office to Ross Dunwiddie, who succeeded in preserving peace for the balance of the contest. As soon as the final score had been announced the visitors challenged Janesville to play another game and the date and place set were Friday, Sept. 15, at Clinton. The tabulated statistics of yesterday's game follow:

VETERANS' MEETING AT JUNCTION TODAY

Soldiers and Sailors of Rock County
Are Holding Their Annual Session.

The association of former soldiers and sailors of Rock county is holding its annual meeting at Milton Junction today. Addresses were to be delivered this afternoon by Rev. S. J. Dowling of Ft. Atkinson, Past Department Commander Pliny Norcross and J. F. Carle of Janesville, and a number of interesting vocal and instrumental pieces were promised. W. J. Chamberlain, as president, and W. J. McIntyre, as secretary of the Association, signed the call for the annual meeting.

BELOIT BAPTISTS CALL REV. HATCH TO PULPIT

Grandson of Late Rev. Hodge of Janesville May Succeed
Rev. Hanson.

Rev. F. W. Hatch, pastor of the Eau Claire Baptist church for four years and a grandson of the late Rev. Hodge of Janesville, has been called to the pulpit of the Beloit congregation to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Howland Hanson. Rev. Hatch is 31 years of age and has been in the east for three years past. The congregation was unanimously in favor of the call and it is believed that Rev. Hatch will accept.

LADY REMEMBERED HERE IS HOSTESS AT IDAHO BUILDING

Mrs. John McGlinchy, Daughter of the Late Judge Noggle, Honored
By Governor.

Mrs. John McGlinchy of Payette, Idaho, better known here as May Noggle, daughter of the late Judge Noggle who was long chief justice of Idaho, has been appointed by the governor as hostess at the Idaho state building at the Portland exposition for the month of September. Mrs. McGlinchy has been a resident of Idaho since the early seventies and is well fitted in every way to perform the duties of the honorable position to which she has been appointed. Friends who visit this building (one of the most interesting on the grounds) are assured of a warm welcome.

Charles and F. J. Rueping have sold their stock in the Fond du Lac Mill and Grain company to the John Roling estate for $65,000.

MURDEROUS BULLDOG RUNS AT LARGE NOW

Kills Little Dogs and Frightens Children—Should Be Muzzled or Tied Up.

Residents in the vicinity of High and Holmes streets are indignant at the actions of a bulldog, the property of a local saloon-keeper. The animal appears to have no regard for propriety and attacks innocent little dogs who are following their masters or mistresses along the streets minding their own affairs. One shake of his iron jaws is usually enough and the canine murderer walks away satisfied. Last Saturday a little rat and tan, too old to make any resistance, was attacked by this animal and while he escaped once a few moments later fell victim to a toss and shake that ended his earthly career. He was a family pet, one whose place cannot be filled. A small boy who tried to interfere was also nearly bitten before the brute finished his work. Such an animal is dangerous to the community. It lays within the power of the police to compel the owner to muzzle his brute or keep him chained up. The neighbors are anxiously waiting to see what steps the police will take, as the owner is a power in the ward politically.

MR. AND MRS. BERNARD PALMER ROYALLY ENTERTAINED PARTY

Of Unbidden Guests Who Took Possession of Their Home on East Street Last Evening.

At their very pleasant home, No. 9 East street, last evening Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Palmer entertained a small company of friends who arrived unannounced and supposedly unexpected, armed with baskets which bulged with real "triumphs" of culinary art. The surprise of the host and hostess may be imagined when it is remarked that the entire home was brilliantly lighted and an open box of fine Havanas rested in a conspicuous position on the veranda when the "surprisers" put in an appearance. The evening was devoted to music and social converse and all of the participants enjoyed a delightful time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNamara, Mr. and Mrs. David Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peterson, the Misses Hollis, Helen Nash, Lucie Whitton, and Harriet Bestick, and Messrs. Sam Bohlin and Charles Reynolds.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

In the last year the German Emperor, with his own hand, wrote 7,000 letters, telegrams, and orders.

Sir Edward Elgar, who recently received a degree from Yale university, is one of the best known musicians in England.

John Muir, discoverer of the Alaskan glacier that bears his name, is ill in Arizona. He has international reputation as a naturalist and geologist.

J. Finney, a New South Wales educator of note, declares that this country is far ahead of England's colonies in its industrial and commercial life.

Alois Riehl, recently appointed professor of philosophy at the University of Berlin, is described as a "literary aristocrat and a man of great eloquence."

Maj. Gen. John C. Bates, assistant chief of staff, is acting secretary of war, and will continue to serve until Assistant Secretary Oliver concludes his vacation on Sept. 1.

Mrs. Harriet P. Howell, sister of Nan Patterson, has passed a civil service examination and is now a plate printer's assistant in the bureau of printing and engraving at Washington at $125 a year.

The bedroom of Col. R. M. Thompson, president of the New York metal exchange, is probably the highest in the world, being on the twenty-fifth floor of a Wall street skyscraper, 300 feet above the street level.

King Carlos' title is imposing. He is "King of Portugal and the Algarves within and beyond the Seas, in Africa, Lord of Guinea, and of the navigation and commerce of Ethiopia, Arabia, Persia, and the West Indies."

Former Ambassador Choate, since his return from England, has been fairly deluged with offers and pleas to take law cases, but sticks to his original intention of not resuming practice. It is said one large corporation offered him $100,000 a year to become its counsel.

German Attack Insurgents.
Berlin, Aug. 29.—A detachment of marines and sailors from the German cruiser Bussard surprised about 1,000 insurgent natives, half of whom were armed with rifles.

The Germans killed seventy-three of the insurgents and drove many others into the river Riffi, where they were drowned.
No German casualties were reported.

$500,000 Fire at Johnstown.
Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 29.—The building and stock of the Penn Traffic company, a department store, were destroyed by fire that started among some refuse near the elevator shaft in one of the wings of the building.

The estimated loss is $500,000, which is almost covered by insurance. For a time the Crystal hotel and other buildings were threatened.

RISE UP EARLY TO SEE ECLIPSE

SUN WILL BE PARTIALLY DARKENED TOMORROW MORNING.

FROM FIVE TO SIX-THIRTY

Eclipse Will Be Total in Some Places
—Astronomers Spend Much to Witness Rare Sight.

Tomorrow hundreds of astronomers of different nationalities will be stationed along a narrow dark strip running from Manitoba, across Canada and Labrador, the Atlantic ocean, Spain and Africa, after months of preparation and the expenditure of thousands of dollars to avail themselves of a few moments' observation of a total eclipse of the sun. By observation and mathematical deduction, astronomers have calculated just where the eclipse of Aug. 30 will be visible and just at what time, to the nearest fraction of a second, the striking features will appear at any one place, and it may also be added that they have already worked out with nearly equal precision just when and where the eclipse of the year 2012 will be seen.

Can See Eclipse at Home

It will not be necessary to go away from home merely to see the eclipse. The would-be observers will only have to get out of bed earlier than they are in the habit of doing. A partial eclipse will be visible here from 5:14 to 6:33 o'clock. To look at the sun itself one should be provided with smoked or colored glass, or a photographic plate developed until quite black. The problems of interest all center around the time of totality—those precious few minutes when the sun is entirely lost sight of. How dependent the observations are on the fickle weather! If it should be raining or the sky entirely overcast, or even a stray cloud should hide the sun for the important five minutes, the form of the astronomer, with all its months of preparation, would come to naught.

First View in Canada

On Wednesday, the 30th, the total eclipse begins at sunrise in Manitoba, in Canada. The moon's shadow path travels eastward over the earth at cannon-ball velocity, or over 1,000 miles an hour, and after crossing Manitoba, James bay and Labrador leaves North America and crosses the Atlantic. First contact takes place in Spain about noon, and a little over an hour later the sun is entirely covered up and the total phase begins. After leaving Spain the shadow traverses the continent of Africa, crosses the Red sea and leaves the earth's surface at sunset in Arabia, on the coast of the Indian ocean. The narrow path, 120 miles in width, will be thickly studded with telescopes, scientists being scattered there from all over the world—from the United States, from England, from France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Holland, Russia and Japan. The chief parties in Spain, those which have the most comprehensive programs, will be from the United States naval observatory, from the Lick observatory of California and from the Royal Astronomical and Royal societies of England.

Problems for Investigation

The main problems for investigation can be divided as follows:

1. The corona—what is it?
2. The sun's atmosphere—what are the conditions of the gases which compose it and how high do they extend above the surface of the sun?

But to be able to study this detail closely it is necessary to have a photograph on a larger scale. The Lick observatory will send out three big cameras, each of the same size, forty feet long, and photographs with these will give the sun over four inches in diameter. One of these instruments will go to Labrador to be used by Dr. Heber D. Curtis, the second will be in Spain to be used by Professor W. W. Campbell and Professor C. D. Perrine and the third will go to Egypt, up the Nile, with Professor W. J. Hussey. These three telescopes will be mounted in such a way that they will point directly toward the sun when it is eclipsed. Since the sun is continually moving it is necessary to have the photographic plate moved by clock work to keep up with the motion of the sun.

Edward Case of 161 Racine Street
Lost Forty of Best

Chicken thieves are at work in the city again, according to a report coming from Edward Case, 161 Racine street, who complains that thirty or forty of his best fowls were taken from the hen-house last Thursday night.

John Rooney, a neighbor, heard a noise in that locality between 12 and 1 o'clock, but did not see the thieves.

Concerning Other Lines

The scheme for the Alaska-Siberian railway has been abandoned, according to press dispatches, the commission of the Russian government having concluded that the line would be of little value.

After having 35 years paid its employees in checks drawn on banks near the company's offices and shops, the Pennsylvania has decided to return temporarily at least to payments direct by cash. The change will affect 120,000 men. When the check system was instituted it was thought that the distribution of wages in this form would make the superintendents personally acquainted with their men, but the vast growth in the number of employees has prevented the carrying out of this object.

Science Finds The Perfect Food

A Grain of Wheat Contains Every Element Necessary For the Health and Sustenance of the Human Body.

Scientists have determined that the various food elements found in wheat are the identical elements of which the tissues and cells, the bone and brain, the blood and muscle of the human body are composed and with which they must be replenished if life and strength are to be maintained.

Every nutritive element, every one of those marvelous strength and tissue-building food qualities of the best white wheat grown is found in Malta-Vita. This famous food is the whole of the wheat, thoroughly scoured and cooked in absolute purity and mixed with the finest malt extract that can be made.

You understand, of course, that the cooking and steaming of the wheat gelatinizes its starch, and then the malt extract, a powerful digestive agent, quickly converts this starch into maltose—malt sugar. Maltose is great food, and the weakest stomach digests and assimilates it without effort. Physicians recommend it and Malta-Vita is rich in it.

The malted wheat, having been rolled into little flakes, is baked under such intense heat that when it comes from the great ovens every flake is crisp, brown Malta-Vita—the most delicious food in the world.

"For many years," writes Mrs. Valer C. Regan of 217 N. Church street, Rockford, Ill., "my husband has suffered from indigestion and extreme nervousness. We have been to great expense sending him to resorts where he might have the desired quiet for the time being he would improve, but, after a few days, on returning to business, his sickness would become more troublesome than ever."

"Through a friend I bought the first package of Malta-Vita. It has been in our home ever since and will remain as long as it continues to do the good work. My husband is now in perfect health, his stomach seems strong, and his nights prove a source of rest instead of torture. He eats but little meat and pastry and claims that the 'Vita' takes the place of both. I serve it in many different ways, and it always is tempting; far better, it says one feeling that he has had a plenty and still not overloaded. With fruit it makes delicious desserts."

A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malta-Vita and it's good three times a day. All grocers sell it. Now 10 cents per package.

Forty Years Ago.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, August 29, 1865.—Looking for Justice.—The-for-Tat.—This morning a man named Michael Harvey was devoting his time to securing a lawyer to prosecute one Pankhurst, who, he alleges, had slandered him by accusing him of stealing money. Pankhurst, on the other hand, was hastening for another law office, but before he could obtain the desired assistance Pankhurst had procured a warrant for his arrest on the charge of stealing. The officer took Harvey in charge, but he insisted that the officer must prosecute Pankhurst for slander, and the last we heard of him he was still seeking some brilliant legal luminary to vindicate his outraged character. If we were going to make a guess we should say whiskey was at the bottom of it.

Good Advice.—An exchange prints the following sound sense, which every locality which has a local paper should read and profit by. The places are very few indeed, which, once having enjoyed the advantages which a local paper affords, would be willing to do without it. No journal, however excellent from abroad, can supply the place of a home paper. And not only so but the character of a paper published in a town is the best index of the character of the town. Show us a well conducted, well supported paper, and we will show a good place to live in and a thrifty business town. On the other hand, a paper which starves its local paper to stands the business better.

COMING Attractions . . .

"The Forbidden Land," the bright, particular part song hit of "The Forbidden Land," which comes to the Myers Grand on Monday, Sept. 4, matinee and night, will be whistled all over town if we mistake not. Those who have heard it say it is a gem. It tickles the ear and rings, and sing, and turns itself into so many variations in the mind after it has once been heard that it finally works itself into shape, and then the whistling begins. It is impossible to prevent it. Watch for it! Its melody is infectious. When you come down town and hear a young man on the car platform whistle a little tune, bewildering in its catchy spirit, don't ask him what it is; just listen to him until you reach your own destination and you will be whistling it yourself.

But "My Little Lhasa Maid" is not all there is to "The Forbidden Land," for its musical score by Frederic Chapin, and its excellent book by Guy P. Stealy, and its active, agile, prepossessing and voluminous chorus are all features. Its splendid pictorial possibilities, both as to costumes and scenery, which have been utilized to the fullest capacity, are other attractive features, as well as the excellent cast, headed by Edward Garvin, and including Charles A. Morgan, W. H. Clarke, Thomas Cameron, Hughie Flaherty, H. S. Austin, Abbott Adams, Alma Young, Grace McARY, and Mabel Lallin.

The engagement is for two performances and will take place at the Myers Grand on Monday, Sept. 4, matinee and night.

SMART MODEL FOR LONG-COATED COSTUME

All of the smooth and lustrous cloths are in high esteem for these dressier types of tailormen of which the illustration is a conspicuous example. The coloring is one of the new soft color shades, in which gray and yellow seem to struggle for mastery, and a flat collar of velvet in a deeper tone is trimmed with soutache braids that have been dyed to the cloth tint. The coat has the French whole back, the fullness of the cloth draped down in pleats at the waistline, where a cellulose strap, decorated with buttons and braid straps, seems to hold it in place. The coat skirts are turned back in revers both back and front, and a broad lapel over each shoulder is trimmed with the braid-strapped buttons to match the cellulose. The sleeve is conspicuously full on the forearm, the fullness lessening toward the wrist, where it is pleated into a cuff. The skirt is fashioned toward the center front, and slanted pleats that are well pressed to the hem occupy the sides and back.

Strike Slow to Spread.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—By the action of the officials of Typographical union No. 14 yesterday the number of men involved in the walkout was raised to 274. Members of the union were called out of two shops after a day of conferences with members of the Typothetae.

The number now on strike is less than had been expected by the labor leaders. President E. R. Wright and Organizer John C. Harding made the rounds of seven firms, expecting to call the men out from each establishment.

In only two were the negotiations broken off by the men striking.

Take Courage!

If you are naturally not as strong as your more fortunate sisters, and for this reason experience dread rather than joy at the prospect of becoming a mother, take courage and assurance from this fact: Mother's Friend is meant for you, and by its use you may pass through that glorious martyrdom which is yours by divine right with no more discomfort than that experienced by those who by nature are possibly more adapted for the role of motherhood.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

LAND INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY—Chance to Secure Oil Edges Property at Low Price—Board Sale To Social Estate—200 acres ranch tract in Dixon county, North Dakota, must be sold in a bunch to settle the estate of the late D. M. Stewart. This land is in some of the best range in what is known as the Knife River country. The river passes through the land and affords a perpetual water supply. The land is well grained and out of a fine quality underlies several portions of it. There are exposures of coal along the Knife River and at two different places in the township. Soil is good and suitable for cultivation. This is a snap for an investment, but won't last long.

The land is in a locality where money can be made in farming and ranching. The large ranches are being broken up, except where the parties own the lands they use and many are here coming into the country and large crops of wheat, oats, rye, barley, flax, millet and vegetables are being grown. O. P. Zuer, whose land adjoins the tract here offered, accumulated his wealth in the past 12 years and his brother, Paul, whose place is two miles distant has done equally as well. Both came there as penniless boys at the time.

The Banker from immediately south of this land is one of the best in western North Dakota. $100,000 cash for sale for quick deal. For further particulars write or call on

LIVE STOCK RECEIPTS.

Statistics of internal trade movements as received by the Department of Commerce and Labor through its Bureau of Statistics indicate that, although aggregate live-stock receipts at important interior markets during the first half of the current year were somewhat in excess of similar movements in 1904, total grain receipts and shipments were not so large as those of the previous year, notwithstanding the fact that corn moved in exceptionally heavy volume.

At the markets of Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Louis, and St. Joseph total live stock receipts during the month of June amounted to 2,574,600 head, as against a similar inbound movement in 1904 of 2,705,668 head, and in 1903 of 2,544,291 head. During the first six months of the current year 17,240,195 head of live stock were received at these five markets, a number approximately 600,000 head greater than that for a like period in 1904, and over 2 million head greater than that for 1903. The present year's movement was divided into 3,429,844 cattle, 275,520 calves, 9,629,118 hogs, 4,229,758 sheep, and 215,915 horses and mules. As compared with the 1904 figures, gains were made in the arrivals of calves, hogs, sheep, and horses and mules, but a slight loss occurred in receipts of cattle. The number of cars required to handle the inbound movement during the first six months of 1905 totaled 308,489, as compared with 312,305 cars in 1904 and 290,644 cars in 1903.

Live stock arrivals at Chicago during June totaled 1,197,697 head, and were somewhat less than similar movements of either 1904 or 1903. Shipments for the month amounted to 283,721 head in 1905, 241,185 head in 1904, and 232,604 head in 1903. During the first six months of the present year arrivals of live stock at Chicago aggregated 8,026,395 head, and were appreciably larger than similar receipts in either 1904 or 1903. Shipments for corresponding periods were 2,302,252 head in 1905, 2,108,262 head in 1904, and 1,418,634 head in 1903. At this city receipts of packing-house products during the month of June totaled 88,763,608 pounds, in contrast with a similar inbound movement in 1904 of 87,839,634 pounds, and in 1905 of 46,002,217 pounds. The outbound movement for the month totaled 234,286,890 pounds in 1905, and was somewhat in excess of like shipments in either 1904 or 1903. During the first six months of the present year packing-house products were received at Chicago to the amount of 463,734,752 pounds, as against 310,498,279 pounds in 1904 and 249,647,626 pounds in 1903. Shipments aggregated 1,199,448,072 pounds in 1905, and fell slightly below contrasting movements in 1904, although somewhat exceeding those for 1903.

At St. Louis live stock receipts during the month of June totaled 441,169 head, as against 492,053 head for a similar period in 1904 and 266,611 head in 1903. Shipments for the month, which amounted to 56,204 head in 1905, were 104,534 head in 1904 and 68,850 head in 1903. For the first six months of the current year 2,131,658 head of live stock were received at St. Louis, as compared with a corresponding inbound movement in 1904 of 2,194,884 head and in 1903 of 1,621,200 head, the slight loss indicated for the present year as compared with the 1904 movement being caused by lighter arrivals of cattle, sheep, and horses and mules. Shipments of live animals from this city during the first half of 1905 totaled 445,203 head, as against 462,385 head in 1904 and 333,510 head in 1903.

Kansas City's live stock arrivals during June amounted to 488,425 head, and were somewhat larger than similar movements in 1904, and more than 200,000 in excess of those for 1903. Shipments for the month, which amounted to 66,726 head in 1905, although considerably smaller than a like movement in 1904, were largely in excess of the withdrawals for 1903. During the first half of the present year arrivals of live stock at Kansas City totaled 2,788,181 head, as against 2,597,459 head received during a corresponding period in 1904 and 2,244,072 head in 1903. Similar shipments for corresponding periods amounted to 450,332 head in 1905, 500,320 head in 1904, and 424,704 head in 1903.

Total grain receipts at 12 important interior primary markets during the month of June amounted to 50,540,585 bushels, of which 42,005,953 bushels were wheat, 23,344,757 bushels corn, 15,531,697 bushels oats, 3,005,418 bushels barley, and 233,054 bushels rye. A total inbound movement during the corresponding month in 1904 aggregated 45,230,543 bushels, being over 5 million bushels less than the 1905 receipts, due largely to increases during the latter year in the arrivals of corn, oats, and barley. For the first half of the current year, 272,580,182 bushels of grain were received at these markets, in contrast with 273,748,133 bushels in 1904. Although large gains were made in corn receipts during the present year, as compared with similar movements in 1904, shrinkages in wheat, oats, barley and rye arrivals were more than enough to offset these gains. Of the interior markets prominently identified with the receipts of grain, Chicago lead, having received 107,642,145 bushels during the first six months of the current year. Minneapolis came second with 47,206,160 bushels, and St. Louis third with 22,453,276 bushels.

Receipts of wheat at the four spring wheat markets of Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Duluth, and Chicago, during the crop year from August 1, 1904, to and including June 30, 1905, aggregated 139,553,754 bushels, as against similar total arrivals in 1904 of 143,482,325 bushels, and in 1903 of 162,221,328 bushels. As compared with the 1904 figures, losses were sustained at the markets of Milwaukee and Duluth; Minneapolis and Chicago having increased their receipts. At the winter wheat markets of Toledo, St. Louis, Detroit, and Kansas City, receipts of wheat, from July 1, 1904, to June 30, 1905, amounted to 57,600,848 bushels, and were over 15½ million bushels lighter than the corresponding movement in 1904, and over 16½ million bushels less than that for 1903. Losses were sustained at all four of the markets specified, although the decrease at Detroit was very small.

The eastbound trunk line movements of grain from Chicago and Chicago points during the month of June amounted to 4,853,009 bushels, and were somewhat lower than like movements in 1904, but approximately a million bushels greater than those for 1903. During the first half of the present year 56,546,000 bushels of grain were shipped eastward over the trunk lines from Chicago and Chicago points, as compared with a similar movement in 1904 of 53,974,600 bushels, and in 1903 of 48,945,000 bushels. Eastbound flour movements during the month of June totaled 221,371 bushels in 1905, 426,438 bushels in 1904, and 221,347 bushels in 1903, while similar movements for a six-month period were 2,629,345 barrels in 1905, 4,216,347 barrels in 1904, and 2,423,918 barrels in 1903. During the month of June 105,131 tons of provisions left Chicago and Chicago points eastbound over the trunk lines, as compared with a corresponding movement in 1904 of 91,257 tons, and in 1903 of 99,961 tons. A similar movement for the first six months of the current year amounted to 671,795 tons, a total somewhat smaller than that representing a corresponding movement for 1904, but over 69,000 pounds greater than that for 1903.

On the Great Lakes the traffic during the month of June was of extremely heavy volume, 8,846,645 net tons of freight having been received at the various ports, in contrast with a similar inbound movement in 1904 of 4,785,081 tons, and in 1903 of 8,414,086 tons. During the first half of the current year similar receipts amounted to 19,806,321 tons, as against 6,654,263 tons in 1904, and 19,074,608 tons in 1903. The current year's inbound movement was divided into 294,099 tons of flour, 39,710,967 bushels of grain and flaxseed, 2,829,693 tons of coal, 19,297,426 gross tons of ore and minerals, 625,549 M feet of logs and lumber, and 1,722,414 net tons of unclassified freight.

Commerce through the Sault Ste. Marie canals at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and Ontario, Canada, during the month of June totaled 6,057,491 tons, as against a corresponding movement in 1904 of 3,139,236 tons, and in 1903 of 5,105,078 tons. Of the traffic for the first six months of the current year 5,137,855 tons moved eastward and 919,600 tons westward, while of the total movement in both directions 5,046,079 tons passed through the United States canal, and 1,011,412 tons through the Canadian canal. Among the items prominent in the east-bound movement may be mentioned 4,672,467 tons of iron ore, 3,402,137 bushels of wheat, and 2,708,686 bushels of grain other than wheat. The principal item in the west-bound movement consisted of 728,888 net tons of soft coal. During the present season, to and including June 30, 13,133,444 net tons of freight passed through the canals at Sault Ste. Marie, an amount nearly ten million tons in excess of a similar movement in 1904 and considerably over a million tons heavier than that for 1903. Of the present year's movement 10,905,233 tons represent an eastbound movement and 2,128,211 tons a westbound movement, while of the trade passing in both directions 10,815,299 tons moved through the canal in Canadian territory.

PRESS COMMENT.

Chicago Tribune: Every day some visitor from Rockford, Ottawa, or Galena discovers with wonder that horse cars still are used in Chicago.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Secretary Taft may not be a candidate for a presidential nomination, but he is taking the same route Mr. Bryan will soon be taken after him, which is suspicious to say the least.

La Crosse Leader-Press: There is a growing conviction all over the world that, if the other potententials will keep out of it, Special Navy Roosevelt can arrange a peace satisfactory to everybody.

Chicago Record-Herald: The Shah of Persia declares that Buffalo Bill's show is more entertaining than grand opera. But the shah can speak as he feels without being afraid of losing social prestige.

Exchange: Chemists say that pretty soon everybody can have all the radium he wants to play with, at reasonable rates. One-thousandth of a grain is alleged to produce a two-inch ulcer after carrying in the pocket for one day.

Chicago Herald: Chicago university has a new theory of the origin of the solar system and incidentally takes occasion to convey the impression that the sun is a grossly overrated body. More trucking to the kerfuffle of interest.

Marquette Eagle-Star: Justice Brewer has expressed the opinion that if the women were given a chance to vote graft would be abolished. "Perhaps," remarks the Milwaukee News, "but what would happen if it should be reduced to $49.99?"

Milwaukee Sentinel: When the excitement is all over the citizens of Milwaukee will wonder how a district attorney who causes indictments to be returned against millionaires for theft and against beggars for bribery could expect to be taken seriously.

Mitchell (Ore.) Sentinel: Perry Schrum had the misfortune accidentally to shoot himself through the arm last week, making a very painful wound, but is recovering fast. It would be a hard matter to kill Perry unless you cut his head off and hid it from him.

Chicago Record-Herald: A chuckleberry pie that had been baked without any air holes in the top crust exploded when it was placed on the table in a Patterson, N. J., boarding house a few days ago, and several people were badly injured. There should be drastic legislation providing air holes in boarding-house pies.

Oshkosh Northwestern: Talk about loyalty to the home ball team—how is this from The Pond du Lac Reporter? It says: "There isn't any chance for the Pond du Lac ball team to win the pennant this year, but they deserve it just the same." That's the kind of talk to make players feel they are appreciated.

Rockford Register-Gazette: A census of the New York state prisons discloses the fact that they contain 193 lawyers, and the circumstance that the insurance investigating committee is still searching for an honest lawyer to act as its counsel perhaps seems to indicate that they ought to contain a good many more.

Pond du Lac Bulletin: It will be found a great deal better policy, in the long run, to treat the newspaper man who interviews you as the other would a member of any of the other great professions. There is no man who appreciates courtesy more, whose sympathies are more readily touched or who will excuse the cause of justice more readily than the average reporter.

Home Without Codfish. La Crosse Chronicle: Dealers who have been accustomed to offer codfish for sale have received notices from the Chicago wholesale house stating that hereafter it will be impossible for them to supply the trade in Wisconsin. This action is caused by a law passed by the last legislature of the state which makes it a misdemeanor to sell codfish or any other kind of fish or meats in which a preservative containing borax has been used. As practically all forms of codfish are preserved by the use of borax, the sale of this toothsome fish in Wisconsin may be cut off until another form of preservative is used. This is the limit of endurance. What is home without codfish, anyway? When the state interferes with the supply of codfish it is time for revolt. Let us up and at the powers that have trifled with our freedom's rights. Let the red flag of anarchy wave until codfish is restored to the free list. However, the codfish aristocracy is not interfered with.

Theater Trust Must Go. Milwaukee Journal: The theater trust must go. It is bad in its nature, harmful in its influence, un-American wholly bad. It is an imposition of the rankiest kind. It is worse—it is a shameless fraud which ought not to be tolerated for an instant by free-dom-loving Americans. The trust has done untold injury to the American stage. It has had only one aim, one desire—to make money. It knows nothing and cares nothing about art. It wants money and it is willing to sacrifice everything else for the sake of money. It must go, for can the trust be broken? It can be easily enough if the people will call a halt. Cease to patronize the trust theaters when they attempt to foist upon you plays that are indecent and unworthy, and by so doing stop the trust's income, and you will see the trust fall to pieces like a house of cards. It is money that the trust wants. Cut off the money and there will be no trust.

COUNCIL PASSES UPON CARNIVAL

AT MEETING AT FIVE O'CLOCK
THIS AFTERNOON.

EXPECTED TO BE IN FAVOR

Of Creating a Big Gala Week for Janesville—Blocking of Streets
Principal Objection.

Members of the city council have been asked to convene in special session at five o'clock this afternoon to pass upon the question of granting to the Ferris Street Carnival Co. the permit to place their shows on certain of the thoroughfares next week. The carnival is to be presented here under the auspices of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and it was believed this afternoon that the desired permission would be granted.

As to Blocking Streets
The principal objection to the carnival on the part of a certain element seems to be the blocking of the thoroughfares with the tents. This could be avoided and the objection nullified if arrangements could be made for placing the shows on vacant lots instead of the streets. Some recommendation to that effect may be considered at the meeting, as some of the aldermen are credited with having advanced the proposition.

"Would Make Big Week"
Those in favor of the project argue that a big gala week in Janesville would give things up considerably and make business for the restaurants, saloons, and other enterprises. Combined with the regular celebration Monday Janesville would witness the biggest Labor Day demonstration in its history.

Shows Said to Be Good
W. W. Watt, who saw the shows at Neenah and Menasha this week, writes that they are all that is claimed for them, and more. The animal show is said to be a good sized circus in itself. It takes twenty-eight cars to transport the properties alone.

BURGLAR AT THE VALENTINE HOME

Was Frightened Away From His Work
Saturday Night by a Call from Owner.

Saturday evening about ten o'clock A. M. Valentine, who was in an upper room of his home, 157 Park Place, heard a grating noise which seemed to come from the vicinity of the library downstairs. Thinking the sound was caused by some member of the family he called and the noise was succeeded by another which resembled a scuffling of feet on the porch. Nothing further was heard and Mr. Valentine thought no more of the matter until the next morning when he discovered that the screen had been removed from a French window swinging on hinges in the library and that the window itself had been pushed in as far as a heavy sofa which formed an obstruction to the opening would permit. It is believed that burglary was attempted with the idea that there was no one at home. A light turned low in the library doubtless persuaded the house-breaker that the way was clear.

SIDE-PARTNER OF HORSE TRADER REFUSED TO LEAVE

Police Were Afraid That Man Named
Southwick Might Become Afflicted With Smallpox.

Yesterday the police interviewed a man named Southwick, a sort of side-partner of Art Francis, the horse trader who is just recovering from smallpox, and told him to leave the city. Southwick refused to do this and consulted an attorney with regard to his technical rights to remain here if he so chose. Southwick has been vaccinated and shows no symptoms of the disease, but he could not be taken to the isolation hospital and the officers were unwilling to put him in jail for fear he might become afflicted or transmit the disease by means of infected clothing. The physician of the matter was that Health Officer McCarthy took him to the detention hospital and had administered a bichloride bath at the same time fumigating his clothes. Today Southwick again sought the same attorney and wanted to institute proceedings, claiming that the Health Officer charged him $2 for the bath and fumigation and that the city ought to pay it.

Notice to Brewery Workers
All members and brewery workers are earnestly requested to attend a special meeting at their hall Aug. 29th at 8:00 p. m. Business of importance will be before the meeting; also arrangements will be made for Labor Day. By order of the president, A. VOLDRECHT, Sec'y.

Where Red Fire Won't Count.

Madison Journal: The city of Washington and the statesmen there are curious as to what manner of man this La Follette is. His task is difficult. It is no longer to deliver eloquent efforts in the middle of the stage in the glare of the lime lights with all the aids of dramatic situation and feverish audiences; but to go into committee rooms with matter of fact old gentlemen who deal in dry facts and established precedents or to address some ninety men on the floor, most of whom have lots of brains, much sense and a fatal absence of susceptibility to hysteria.

"The worst of it will be that most of the gentlemen will be in the lobby or at best reading newspapers. The fact is the governor has no power in a company of that sort. Stars differ in glory and Governor La Follette's 'glory' is not in serious unaffected discourse with sober minded gentlemen where a dispassionate comparison of views is desired. Without red lights and stage thunder and at least a sprinkling of unsophisticated people who don't often hear good talking, our governor is a fish out of water. We wish him well in the senate, but beyond stirring up a fuss by denouncing his associates and 'throwing himself' on his countrymen outside that body, we can't, for the life of us see how 'Bob' is going to make much of an impression. The chances are that he knows enough not to try. That he will keep his mouth shut and look pleasant—at least for a time,

BLIND PHYSICIAN'S FIRST ACCIDENT

Graduate of State School Who Has Made Brilliant Record, Hit by Street Car.

Dr. A. O. Anderson, a blind physician in Oshkosh, who graduated from the State Institution here and is well known in the city, met with his first serious accident last week as a result of not being able to comprehend the exact situation. He was struck by a street car and suffered from bruises and cuts on his hands and face. Although not seriously injured he was removed to St. Mary's hospital, where his wounds were dressed. Dr. Anderson had been making a call and was returning to his home.

He had reached the intersection of Third and Main streets when he was walking at the side of the track when a street car came along at a slow rate of speed. Dr. Anderson was walking far enough from the track to be passed safely by the car. The motorman noticing the man but not recognizing him as Dr. Anderson rang the gong on the car when within a few feet of the victim of the accident. The sound startled the doctor who instead of stepping away from the track jumped directly toward the oncoming car. He was struck by the corner of the car and knocked to the pavement. The injured man was picked up and taken to St. Mary's hospital where he was examined by physicians. Dr. Neil Andrews, physician for the Winnebago, Tracoma company, made a report to the company that Dr. Anderson's injuries consisted of a cut nose and upper lip and abrasions of the hands. These hurts were not regarded as serious. It was a fortunate circumstance that the car was going slow at the time, otherwise the doctor would doubtless have suffered more severe injuries. For some time past he has been going about the city not even assisted with a cane and possessed extreme confidence in his ability to get about. He rides a horse unassisted and also a tandem bicycle and does other remarkable feats, such as telling time by feeling of the face of his watch and playing cards.

ROMANCE OF TIBET PICTURED AND SUNG

Great Treat in Store in "The Forbidden Land", Which Opens Theatrical Season Monday.

Most flattering tributes from the great newspapers of Kansas City, New Orleans, Milwaukee, Chicago, and a half a dozen other great theatrical strongholds, exhibited by Advertiser Manager Abrams of "The Forbidden Land" comic opera attraction, yesterday, furnish the strongest indications that this musical production which opens the season at the Myers theatre in Janesville Monday afternoon and evening will thoroughly delight all lovers of beautiful music, exquisite stage settings, and legitimate acting and comedy. Alma Young, Edward Garvie, Charles Morgan, W. H. Clarke, Thomas Cameron, Mabel Laffin, and H. S. Austin are a few of the high-class artists who make up the cast. Little Ethel Johnson, so well remembered here as the "Patsy" of "The Tenderfoot," will take the part of "The Forbidden Land." Those who followed her career will not be unfamiliar with the quality of this comic opera—its unique and unconventional libretto and the scholarly, yet tuneful and catchy music by Frederic Chapin. The chorus numbers forty. Mr. Abrams is opposed to the idea of announcing a company of a hundred and then materializing about twenty-five. It is said to be made up of very handsome and capable young women.

Japs Are Born Sailors.

A Japanese marine officer has explained why Japan has such good sailors. Most of her coast vessels are small, but there are a great many of them, and almost any man taken from a fishing village has had enough experience to enable him to become an efficient sailor in a short time.

SEE SUCCESS IN EFFORTS FOR PEACE

Members of Congress at Brussels Are Encouraged Over the Outlook.

Brussels, Aug. 29.—Richard Bartholdt, president of the interparliamentary group in congress, made a report in behalf of the United States congress. In part Mr. Bartholdt said: "The status of our common cause in the United States never justified a more favorable report than it does at the present time. Two causes have mainly contributed toward this revival of interest in the peace movement—the meeting of the interparliamentary conference on American soil and the deep-going disgust with that barbarous war in the Orient."

"It is with pardonable pride that we Americans point to the historical fact that it was left to an American parliament not only to open again the doors of The Hague, but also to stop, in the interests of both the belligerents and humanity, the war between Russia and Japan."

The opening of the interparliamentary congress in the national palace here was the occasion for a notable demonstration in behalf of President Roosevelt, and the success of the peace conference at Portsmouth. The session was held in U. S. senate chamber of the palace. Large delegations, representing practically all the leading parliaments, were present. The welcoming address, delivered by Minister of State Beernaert, aroused a storm of applause.

The congress adopted amid enthusiasm resolutions of thanks to President Roosevelt for his efforts in the interests of humanity to terminate the Russo-Japanese war.

ANOTHER YEAR OF HIGH SCHOOL WORK ADDED TO COURSE IN ORFORDVILLE

Fourth Teacher Will Be Hired—Meeting Held Last Week.

Orfordville, August 28.—At a special school meeting Thursday evening called by the required number of qualified electors, it was decided to add another year of high school work to the present course and hire a fourth teacher. Since the new state law for graded schools has been in force, the course has carried the pupils as far as the ninth grade, which is the same as the first year high school work for three year high schools. The pupils were then dropped and were forced to go away to school or to remain out. This year on account of the large number that finish the course, it was decided to finish the course by keeping the pupils at home to do the high school work instead of sending them away. For that reason the special meeting was called with the above result. The whole number of votes cast was 102, of which 42 were against the proposition and 60 were in favor of it. It seems that the advantages of such a step would appeal to every fair minded person. In the first place it will keep all our young people at home. Every child, boy or girl, at the age of entering high school is better off at home, under the parents' care, than they are at some foreign school. It will be a saving to the parents as they will not be compelled to pay board, buy extra clothing, and other necessary expenses connected with their larger children in the city. It will be an advantage to the village, as there is no other institution that has as much influence in building up a town as the school. Under a new state law the town pays the tuition of those pupils who attend high school in some other town. If we can have a high school of our own we will save that amount and we will also receive $18 from the town where a pupil comes to the village school. Those pupils who heretofore have been compelled to drop the work at the ninth grade will now be able to go on and get a good education. In addition to the above there are many other advantages to be derived from a high school, and it is to be hoped that all will soon be led to see these.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private life to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has drawn from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They Are Janesville People, and What They Say Is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

"I—I heard the clock strike the hours."

"I heard it strike three, but lay so locked in drowsiness that I knew not the Lord was calling to me. If the seven sleepers were melted into one, I would outstep that one. Well, to get on, I was robbed in the night. It must have been at that hour, for I remember dimly some sort of disturbance. But Providence stood my friend. By the merest chance, it might seem, but not by chance, as I believe, I saw the creature make for Broughton. 'So, here's for Broughton,' cried I, 'on the back of Bruce, and see if my good pistols would win back what had been stolen from me.' The Broughton road it was, and the pistols did the business." Saying this, he whisked from his pocket the king's commission, waving it triumphantly aloft. Her wide eyes drank in the amazing sight of it, slowly brimming with superstitious fear, and then she asked a duplicate of the question that had been asked of her a few hours before.

"Did you kill Cromwell?"
"Cromwell? I never saw him."

"Oh, I am going mad! Who is the thief? Who is the thief?"

"De Courcy, if you must know. Why does this trivial matter so disturb you? De Courcy followed us from Oxford last night and was lodged at our inn. By some means he penetrated into my room, stole this from me, and I never missed it until I saw him ride for Broughton, and not even then, to tell the exact truth, but I remembered that he had seen me place this paper in the inside pocket of my vest, in the king's own presence, and then the whole plot came to me. Before he saw Broughton, Bruce and I were down upon him like a highland storm on the lowland."

"This is not the king's commission," she said.

"Oh, but it is!"

"It is not. Have you read it?"

"No, but that's soon done."

He untied the cord and unfolded the sheepskin. She leaned eagerly forward and scanned the writing, while Armstrong read it aloud.

"You see," he cried gleefully. "Of course it is the commission. There are the names of Traquair and all the rest, just as I gave them to the secretary, and there is 'Charles Rex' in the king's own hand."

"It is a duplicate. Cromwell has the original. You never left De Courcy alive within a mile of Broughton castle?"

"I did that very thing. Not as lively as I have seen him, yet alive nevertheless."

"Then ride, ride for the north. We have stood too long clattering here."

"All in good time, Frances. There is no more hurry than ever there was; less, indeed, for it seems to me that Cromwell, for some reason, wants to come at this by fraud and not by force. But now that De Courcy's name is mentioned between us, I ask you what you know against him more than I have told you?"

"Against him? I know everything against him. Would that you had killed him. He would sell his soul, if he has one. He robbed my dying father, and on the day of his death, when I was the only one in London who did not know he was executed, De Courcy hired me to his apartments at Whitehall under pretense of leading me to the king that I might plead for my father's life. There he attempted to entrap me, snatched in my hand the sword which I had clutched from the wall to defend myself, and I struck him twice in the face and blinded him with his own false blood and so escaped. Judge, then, my fear when I saw him there at Oxford."

"The truth! The truth! At last the truth," shouted Armstrong, as if a weight had fallen from his shoulders. "The truth has a ring like honest steel and cannot be mistaken when once you hear it. He lied to me about you in Oxford, and I called him liar and would have proven it on him but that he told me you were in danger. I should have killed the whelp this morning but that he could not defend himself."

"The truth! Yes, but only part of it. He did not rob you last night. I robbed you. I stole into your room and robbed you. I carried the original of that document to Cromwell himself, and it is now in his hands. It was the price of my brother's life. My brother was set on your track by Cromwell, and, being wounded, I took up his task. Do you understand? That was my mission to Oxford—to delude you, to rob you, and I have done it."

"You are saying that to shield some one."

"Look, William Armstrong! For two hours and more last night you held me by the wrist. There is the bracelet with which you presented me—black proof of the black guilt I confess to you."

She held her hand aloft, and the sleeve fell away from the white and rounded arm, marked only by the dark circles where his fingers had pressed.

"Do you say I did that?"

"Yes. If still you do not believe me, measure your fingers with the shadow they have cast."

She reached out her hand to him, and he took it in his left, stroking the bruised wrist with his right, but looking into her eyes all the while.

"Frances, is it this secret that stood between us?"

"Yes."

"Is this all that stood between us?"

"Yes."

news from Birmingham. There is a rising of some sort forward. Birmingham has already been smitten sore by the king's troops, so there is little fear that the citizens have risen in his favor, but I surmise that there has been some sort of royalist outbreak elsewhere in the north. Something is afoot, for messengers have been galloping through Leicester to the east of us for Birmingham. You heard nothing of that farther south?"

"No," said Armstrong, who nevertheless had a shrewd suspicion where the trouble lay. "If there is any royalist rising in Birmingham I would like to avoid the place. I have no wish to get among the royalists. Are there roads by which we can win east of Birmingham?"

The officer retired to the guardhouse and brought out a rude map of the district, which he gave to Armstrong after explaining it. He sent a soldier to set them on the right way when they had left the village. When the soldier had departed and the two were once more alone Armstrong turned in his saddle and looked back at the frowning towers of Warwick castle, looming up through the trees, very suggestive of a prison.

They lunched on bread and cheese at a wayside hut, and once, when they reached the top of a hill, they saw what they took to be Birmingham away to the west. The beyonds they were traversing proved to be desert, and they resolved to keep to their rather than seek the main highway, for they considered that their comparative slowness would be more than compensated for by greater safety. This course soon proved of doubtful wisdom. Without a guide the intricate lanes were puzzling and often came to an end without any apparent reason. When they took to the fields the soil was heavy in many places and fatigued their horses, besides entangling them sometimes in low lying lands that were almost marshes. To add to their difficulties the sun became obscured in a haze, and the temperature dropped sharply, condensing the moisture in the air about them, involving them in a mist that was worse than the darkest night.

CZAR WILL ADD TO HIS ARMIES

More Troops Ordered Mobilized for Service in East.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 29.—An imperial ukase, dated Aug. 19, orders the mobilization of troops for the reinforcement of the army in the far east. The order applies to certain districts in the governments of Vilna, Grodno, Kovno, Courland, Livonia, Permian, Simbirsk, Saratov, Orenburg, Astrakhan and Ufa, and to the Don Cossacks. Horses have been requisitioned in various districts of eighteen governments. This will not interfere with the regular mid-September enrollment of recruits which is expected to bring to the colors 400,000 men.

CANNOT HAVE HIS MILLIONS

Rockefeller Refuses to Put Up $600,000 for Peace in Orient.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 29.—John D. Rockefeller will not give up $600,000, or any other sum to enable the envoys at Portsmouth to forget about indemnity and conclude peace.

This was announced at Forest Hill in response to a question as to what disposition Rockefeller would make of the suggestion called by Le Matin, a Paris journal, that he add his money to President Roosevelt's good offices in promoting peace in the Orient.

Grant's Chair to Uncle Sam.

Brockton, Mass., Aug. 29.—The will of the late Gen. Wilmon W. Blackmar, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, provides for a legacy of $5,000 to Nancy T. Creel of Louisville, Ky., whose mother served as nurse to Gen. Blackmar after he had been wounded in the civil war.

The testator leaves to the United States government the chair in which Gen. Ulysses S. Grant sat when arranging the surrender of Gen. Robert E. Lee of the Confederate army at Appomattox.

Blame No One for Wreck.

Logansport, Ind., Aug. 29.—The official investigation of the wreck of the Cincinnati excursion in the Pennsylvania railroad yards south of this city Aug. 28 establishes the fact that the crew of neither train was responsible for the accident.

The freight and passenger train were speeding along side by side when a gondola jumped the track and knocked the passenger train's right of way.

Patrick Grady, the injured engineer, will die, according to the report of the physicians.

Cholera Spreads in Germany.

Berlin, Aug. 29.—Since Aug. 16, the official Reichs-Anzeiger says, seven cholera cases, three of which were fatal, have occurred in the Weichsel district of East Prussia. Traffic from Weichsel has been placed under medical and police control. Authorities fear the spread of the disease to other districts.

Manila, Aug. 29.—The cholera situation remains unchanged. Two deaths among the natives were reported Aug. 28.

Would Restore Canteen.

Washington, Aug. 29.—In his annual report for the department of the Colorado, which has just been received at the war department, Brigadier General William S. McAdams, commanding, recommends among other things, the re-establishment of the canteen features of the post exchanges and also increased pay for marksmanship.

Shot by Mother's Suitor.

Aurora, Ind., Aug. 29.—Anthony Zonker, a young farmer, was shot to death by Frederick Kuckuck, his mother's suitor. Zonker objected to his widowed mother marrying Kuckuck, a former farm hand, and when the suitor came to take the woman driving he and the son had the fatal quarrel.

Murder and Suicide After Funeral.

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 29.—William Barbour shot and instantly killed Etta Denney after a quarrel over a love affair here. He then shot and killed himself. Both were well known and prominent. Miss Denney had just returned from the funeral of her father.

LOOK FOR JAP

FLEET IN BALTIC

Russian Statesman Predicts Invasion of European Waters by Togo.

ONLY WAY TO END THE WAR

Struggle on Land May Continue Long Without Definite Results, but Naval Action Would Decide It—German Predicts Russian Bankruptcy.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 29.—A prominent statesman who is influential with the government, though he is a zemstvoist, said today:

"Togo began the war and will finish it. Oyama never can bring about a Russian Sedan. Linewitch, having an army of 750,000 men and always in retreat, will never confess defeat. Neither will the Japanese acknowledge defeat in case Linewitch wins a victory, for they will merely retreat. Dynastic considerations will not allow the czar to pay an indemnity or cede territory. Thus to recognize that his army is beaten would alienate that army's sole support, and furnish weapons for the antidynastic ferment. Japan will never accept a peace which brings it neither money nor territory."

Britiff's Activity Explained.

"Outside intervention being improbable and the land forces of equal strength, only the Japanese fleet by blockading Russia's Baltic ports can decide the war. It is announced that Togo's ships are to visit England. The feverish activity of Admiral Britiff, Russian minister of marine, along the Baltic shores has great significance."

Foretells Bankruptcy of Russia.

Berlin, Aug. 29.—"It is my aim to point out that when Russia becomes bankrupt and France has lost its milliards, then Germany will dominate this continent forever, provided that the fatherland refuses the new Russian loans," says Regierungsrat Martin of the imperial statistical office, who has just issued a book intended to prove that Russia's bankruptcy is inevitable within fifteen years.

"I think that the present is Russia's very last opportunity to unload its bonds on France and America, which latter country is conquering for Russia's friendship in connection with its settlements in the far east. A quarter of France's mobile wealth will be destroyed," he continued.

Says Czar Must Continue War.

"In my view, in order to delay the catastrophe a few years, Russia must not pay an indemnity, but must continue the war behind Lake Balkal on cheap lines, acting on the defensive. The menace of bankruptcy meanwhile will give Russia immense power in the world's diplomatic councils. No such situation has ever existed before."

Competent observers, however, do not believe that Germany will be able to disentangle itself from Russia's financial difficulties. At the same time they find it a remarkable sign that an imperial official sounds this anxious warning.

Belief That War Will Continue.

Tokio, Aug. 29.—The public here remains uninformed regarding the latest developments at Portsmouth, but seems convinced peace is hopeless. A failure of the peace negotiations would be generally regretted, but the press and all other expressions indicate widespread preference for a continuance of the war rather than the acceptance of unsatisfactory terms.

Underlying this popular attitude is deep-rooted confidence that Field Marshal Oyama will defeat Gen. Linewitch and take Harbin. It is felt the Japanese will completely overrun the coast provinces, possibly greatly lowering the cost of the operations after the main Russian army has been defeated and continue the war for an extended period.

McGovern Is to Fight Again.

New York, Aug. 29.—Terry McGovern will enter the ring again. He has been pronounced sound in body and in mind by a prominent physician, and now, under the management of Joe Humphreys, he is seeking a fight. He will challenge the winner of the Britt-Nelson battle, and, failing in that, he will go after Abe Attoll or Jaboz White.

SUBMARINE MAKES 25 KNOTS

Holland's New Craft, He Says, Will Send Other Boats to Junk Heap.

New York, Aug. 29.—John P. Holland, submarine boat inventor, has received from the navy department at Washington the results of tests made with the model of the new craft designed by him, which he expects will relegate all existing submarine boats to the junk shop.

This latest product of the submarine wizard will, Holland claims, surpass vessels of the Plunger type in speed, safety and facility of manipulation.

The report of the tests, he declares, demonstrates he can produce a submarine grayhound capable, at the lowest calculation, of maintaining a speed of twenty-five knots an hour under way.

Shot by Mother's Suitor.

Aurora, Ind., Aug. 29.—Anthony Zonker, a young farmer, was shot to death by Frederick Kuckuck, his mother's suitor. Zonker objected to his widowed mother marrying Kuckuck, a former farm hand, and when the suitor came to take the woman driving he and the son had the fatal quarrel.

Murder and Suicide After Funeral.

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 29.—William Barbour shot and instantly killed Etta Denney after a quarrel over a love affair here. He then shot and killed himself. Both were well known and prominent. Miss Denney had just returned from the funeral of her father.

MINERS MEAN TO MAKE THE FIGHT A LONG, HARD ONE

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 20.—President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers has been in the hard coal region for several weeks conducting a campaign among the miners which has been aggressive in the extreme. He has denounced the miners who profited by the last strike and then abandoned their union. He said he would not blame the coal operators if they refused to fight with the employees next March when the three years' agreement ends, if they know that the men are not thoroughly organized.

Rules for British Sailors.
